LA STATE TREASURER JOHN FLEMING ADDRESSED ROTARY CLUB OF ST. GEORGE & DELIVERED CHECK:

On Wednesday September 4, Louisiana State Treasurer John Fleming, M.D., spoke to members of the Rotary Club of St. George. He discussed the functions of the Louisiana Department of Treasury and reviewed the impressive accomplishments his office has achieved in 2024, including the return of unclaimed property to Louisiana residents.

At the end of the meeting, Dr. Fleming was pleased to personally deliver an unclaimed property check to Baton Rouge resident Lawrence L'herisson. He said he was "very grateful" to receive the check and praised the State Treasurer's office for "extending courtesies" and working "above and beyond" to return the unclaimed property to him. Mr. L'herisson said will use the funds to restore an antique vehicle and take care of other "pet projects."

STATE TREASURER FLEMING RESPONDS TO LEFT-WING ATTACK:

In his WWL-TV commentary and several columns, Gambit political editor Clancy DuBos has attacked my decision to not recommend Bank of America as a state fiscal agent. He said it amounts to "cheap political theater." DuBos refers to Bank of America as "one of the largest financiers of the fossil fuel industry." In contrast, if Bank of America is so dedicated to the fossil fuel industry, why did it commit to support the end of all carbon emissions by 2050 as a signatory to the United Nations convened Net-Zero Banking Alliance?

The banks in this alliance pledge to "financing ambitious climate action." In fact, the framework of the organization urges banks to "design, set, and achieve" net-zero targets by 2030 or sooner. Bank of America is also mobilizing $1.5 trillion to address the United Nation's Sustainable Development Goals, which state that fossil fuel production causes "environmental degradation, climate change, air pollution, and can negatively impact life on land and below water."
