Moody's Revises Louisiana's Outlook To Positive

BATON ROUGE, LA. – Moody's Rating Agency revised Louisiana's outlook to positive last week for outstanding general obligation bonds that finance state construction projects.

"This is really positive news after some tough months for our state. In its annual review, Moody's expressed optimism and gave us a blueprint for moving forward," said Treasurer Schroder. "By employing careful fiscal management, especially strengthening our Rainy Day Fund, and emphasizing policies that create jobs, we can continue to make progress on our bond ratings."
